In Time of Peace.

In the first months of the Russo-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

Drawn by reports that Jesse Fitzgerald, the Negro murderer of Mrs. Robert Broughton, would be hanged at Barbourville Friday, crowds of people from all over the county assembled there. At two points coal mines had to suspend operations because the miners all left for the scene. It is not known why the report was circulated. Fitzgerald's case is now before the Court of Appeals.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stickel, of Miletus, W. Va. Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it. Cures cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. The peanut growers in Virginia and North Carolina have formed a trust, and if they cannot get the price now they have fixed for the toothsome goober, will hold the stock, which is said to be short and inferior, until they can. This will be bad news to the muncher, who disturbs a public gathering with his munching, but if that were the only drawback the rest of us could view the situation with complaisance.

WHILE you are filling your stomach with turkey, stuffed with oysters, cranberry sauce and other good things on Thursday next remember that there are many people in Stanford who haven't enough even of cold corn bread and meat to satisfy their appetites. A dinner sent to a poor family will bring cheer and happiness to that household. Try it and see if you don't feel better for having done so.

If the Richmond Register is not going to support the democratic ticket nominated Nov. 6th, why doesn't it say so? The kicking that it is doing on the primary sounds very much like the noise made by a man who is gathering up his traps preparatory to changing parties and if Editor Pickles is going over to the enemy let him do so publicly and at once.

ONE of the most pleasing and elegant social functions of the season was the euchre of Miss Lucy Miller Givens Friday evening at her country home, complimentary to Miss Josephine Hayden, of Paris, and Miss Mary McRoberts, of this place. The lady's first prize was awarded to Miss Peterson while the gentleman's prize was won by Mr. Adam Pence. Dr. Tyler and Miss Hayden received the consolation honors. Miss Givens, always a royal hostess, added further to her gifts as an entertainer, as those whose pleasure it was to have been at her home that evening can readily vouchsafe.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The three weeks' session of the November term of the Lincoln circuit court came to a close at noon Saturday. Not a great deal of business was transacted, the greater portion of the time being taken up with two murder cases. The case of James H. Kennedy for killing T. Milton Estes at Crab Orchard on Nov. 6, on trial when our Friday's paper was issued, resulted in a life sentence for Mr. Kennedy. The verdict was rendered late Friday afternoon. It was a stubbornly fought case and some splendid speeches were made by the attorneys on both sides. A new trial was asked for by the attorneys of Kennedy and on Judge Roach's refusal to grant it an appeal was taken. We are informed that several of the jurors were for the extreme penalty. The trial excited a great deal of interest, the court-house being crowded at every session of the court.

BANK STOCK SALE.—H. C. Baughman sold to Mr. K. L. Tanner, of McKinney, a block of stock in the McKinney Deposit Bank at $107.50. This price is an indication that the institution is in a healthy condition.

BROKE IN.—Some thief Sunday night prized the window of the office in the freight depot open about 7:30 or 8:30 o'clock. Agent J. S. Rice tells us that a couple of express packages were opened, but no packages were taken out so far as he can tell. No freight is missing either.

CUTE SAYINGS.—A Lexington four-year-old girl was told by her mother to say her prayers, but the little thing being tired and sleepy, answered: "Oh, mamma, I don't want to bother God so much." In Stanford a little girl, just in her teens, insisted that her younger brother indulge in his usual petitions before retiring. The youngster, worn out from play, heeded her not, when she remarked: "Well, you must say your prayers twice tomorrow night."
